Costa del Sol, Estepona

The first thing you'll notice at Villacana are the beautiful gardens. Flowers cascading over white walls, lemon trees, swaying palms, fountains and luscious landscaped lawns creating a wonderful array of colours and aromas. A real oasis. Wander amongst the apartments and it's like being in a small Spanish village. Flower bordered lanes, traditional street lamps, intimate doorways and arches which open out into landscaped gardens, the swimming pool, dining and leisure facilities. With a great selection of on-site activities, close proximity to a fabulous beach, and great location within the Estepona it's no surprise this self catering resort is a huge hit for couples and for families. With some world-class golf courses nearby, you might even want to bring your clubs. 2 Bedrooms (2 size 160) master bedroom with pool view / 2 Bathrooms and 1 guest toilet
